

Friday - February 6, 2009

"Money was meant to be spread around. The more happiness it creates the more its worth."

-Elvis Presley

Peter Mars artwork on exhibit

Peter Mars, Renowned artist of the "Avant Pop Art Movement" is the newest licensed artist at EPE. During Elvis' birthday celebration, the gallery Elvis shop located in the plaza proudly displayed a few pieces of his artwork for fans to see. His paintings, created using a variety of materials such as canvas, paper, and wood, were also featured in an exclusive presentation for Fan Club presidents from all over the world.

Pieces displayed included 24x30, canvas - "Rockin'", set of two 16x20, canvas - "Photobooth"
20x16, canvas - "Red Background"

Peter Mars visited Graceland while in Memphis for an Art Exhibit at Jay Etkin Gallery that was held on January 30. He interviewed on Siris Radio's Elvis channel shortly after taking a tour of Elvis' home.

Images of artwork created by Peter Mars is now available on the style guide for use on licensed product.

ELVIS PRESLEY ENTERPRISES, INC.
P.O. Box 16508
3734 Elvis Presley Boulevard
Memphis, Tennessee 38186-0508
(901) 332-3322
(800) 238-2000
TDD/TYY: (901) 344-3146

© 2000-2004 EPE, Inc.

Elvis, Elvis Presley, Elvis Week, Graceland, and Heartbreak Hotel are Registered Trademarks with the USPTO.

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED